

There is no apparent change in the condition of General Grant.

The insurance losses in Kentucky the past year were over 70 per cent. of the receipts.

The Navy Department has dispatched more men to the Isthmus of Panama for the protection of our citizens.

Minister Jackson, of Georgia, is credited with having made a million dollars practicing law since the war.

The answer made by Russia to England is considered satisfactory and it is now regarded that war between the two countries is not probable.

Miss Ada C. Swart, Pension Agent at Chicago, who has been requested to resign has declined to do so, and has expressed a preference to be removed.

Captain Evans P. Howell, of Atlanta, will not accept the appointment as Consul to Manchester, and has forwarded to the President his formal declination.

Senator Beck will leave Washington this week to visit the World's Exposition at New Orleans. Mr. Beck will go with him and they will be absent several weeks.

Hon. A. Clarke, State Senator for the district composed of the counties of Bracken, Grant and Pendleton, died at Falmouth, on Saturday morning, of consumption.

Rick's rebellion in the extreme Northwestern part of the Dominion of Canada is growing serious, and the loyal people are appealing to the Government for protection.

The Drummer and the Builder and Real Estate Journal are the names of new papers recently started at Lexington. The Transcript says others will be started later in the spring.

The nominations of Mr. E. L. Worthington for State Senator and Mr. A. P. Gooding for Representative are eminently satisfactory to the Democracy and both gentlemen are certain to be triumphantly elected.

It is reported confidently from Washington that the President will, on next Monday, appoint Captain Groves, of Cloverport, United States Marshal for Kentucky. Senator Blackburn is quite confident that Captain Leavy will be appointed to the place.

Hon. Jefferson Davis has written a letter of sympathy to Gen. Grant which the press telegrams say is very gratifying to him and touched him deeply. Mr. Davis wrote: "If the prayers and good wishes of all those in the South who honor and respect General Grant could avail, he would conquer the dread antagonist with whom he is now contending just as triumphantly as he overcame the antagonists with whom he contended twenty years ago."

The New York Justice says: It is pleasant to see that in the diplomatic and other appointments of the new administration the South is obtaining a fair share of recognition. Twenty years have elapsed since the close of the war, and, if we are ever going to have a real era of reconciliation, it is time that the Southern States were treated as if they were a part of the United States. The appointments thus far made by President Cleveland, while disappointing many who consider that they have claims upon the administration, are uniformly good.

Representatives of both the Rowan County factions have gone to Louisville to confer with Colonel Castleman, who has expressed a desire to have a conference with both sides. It is stated that the Tolliver faction have visited the wives and families of the Martin side, who had left Rowan County to avoid a collision with the opposition, and notified them that the husbands, brothers or fathers could return to Morehead without fear of being harmed. They claimed that their object was to restore peace in the county and see that hereafter the laws of the State were properly enforced. The end of the trouble is considered in sight.

Postmaster Pearson who has been reappointed as Postmaster of New York City, employs 1,730 men, whose annual salaries amount to $1,511,025. The stamp clerk sold $4,000,000 worth of stamps every year, and the cashier during the same period handles more than $10,000,000, being $300,000 a day. For this vast responsibility the Postmaster of New York receives $5,000 a year.

There are more than 40,000 postoffices in the country called fourth-class; that is, they pay the incumbent less than $1,000 a year, and are appointed directly by the Postmaster-General, without the need of confirmation by the Senate. They hold their places at his pleasure, having no term of four years, as do the President's appointees.

JOHN KELLY NO BETTER.

Probability of the Tammany Chief's Removal from Atlantic City.
ATLANTIC CITY, April 7.—The past week has been a lonely one for John Kelly, and the old chief has gained little strength since he came here. His face is pinched and drawn, and deep lines have furrowed new places in his countenance. Every morning, when the weather is bright, he wears a heavy cloak about him, and, accompanied by Mr. J. H. Mooney, walks feebly up and down in the sunshine on the beach. Mr. and Mrs. Mooney and Mrs. Kelly are the only persons permitted to go near him, and he is carefully guarded that no wandering politician may intrude upon his privacy. The nervous prostration from which Mr. Kelly is suffering seems to have taken very firm hold, and the family are growing anxious over the persistent continuance of the mental malady. If no improvement occurs in his condition within a week he will be removed to some other health resort. Park Commissioner Crimmins visited him last week and was greatly pained at his leader's changed appearance.

FRELINGHUYSEN.

Encouraging Condition of the Distinguished Patient at His Home.

NEWARK, N. J., April 7.—Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, who is ill at his home, has fully recovered from the stupor which caused his physician and family so much anxiety. He again took nourishment, made intelligent but short answers to questions, and was so much improved that Dr. O'Sullivan does not now look for an immediate termination of the sickness. Mr. Frelinghuysen may linger several days, and should there be no recurrence of the lethargy, or other unusual symptoms, it is possible for him to live a month, or until he gradually wastes away. He does not think that he is going to die, and expresses a strong desire to get well again.

Big Swindle Case.

PITTSBURG, April 7.—The trial of President Riddle and Cashier Rector, of the Penn Bank, whose failure started the financial world last summer, has commenced in the criminal court before Judge White. The court was crowded with spectators. Fourteen lawyers, including Congressman Boylston, are engaged in the case, which promises to be long drawn out and one of the most exciting ever held in Pittsburgh. The charge is embezzling over $1,000,000. Immediately after court opened the counsel for the defense moved to quash the indictment on account of the lack of evidence. The argument is now proceeding.

A Crack's Glass of Water.

ENNE, Pa., April 7.—Mayor Adams has a novel application to open his term with. David Guttenkunst, a saloon keeper, is an applicant for the post of police chief, candidly stating that he has no personal detective ability, but that his recently married wife is a medium able to detect burglars and recover stolen property by looking in a glass of water. Fearing the mayor would not appoint his wife to the post, Guttenkunst asked for himself, but let his wife run the business. He states that her seeing Wm. L. Scott in congress, while gazing in the glass, determined that gentlemen to run.

Brotherhood of Engineers.

SCRANTON, Pa., April 7.—A largely attended meeting of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers was held here for the purpose of organizing a Scranton division of the order. The meeting included engineers in the employ of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, the Delaware and Hudson, the Lehigh Valley, the Central railroad of New Jersey and some of the Vanderbilt lines. The officers elected will be installed early next month by Chief Arthur of Cleveland, O.

THE CONDENSER.

Fresh, Pliny, News Items $101 Down for the Harried Reader.
Ohio wheat prospects below average. "China Town," San Francisco, had a $300,000 fire.

The rebellion in British America is on the increase. Secretary Whitney has ordered 250 men to Aspinwall.

Moody and Sanky are stirring up sinners in Pittsburg.

Hon. A. R. Clarke, state senator of Kentucky, is dead.

At Clinton, O., Jonas Oliver, eighteen, was killed by a locomotive.

Capt. Elias Sims, seventy-two, a late veteran, died at Cleveland.

Mrs. (Mrs. Tom) Thum is married to Count Prince Magri, an Italian prince.

Ain C. Swift, pension agent at Chicago, refuses to resign, and proves civil rules.

A falling Pittsburgh sign fatally smashed two young ladies going to Sunday-school. Ten thousand people are homeless at Aspinwall. The fire caused a loss of $4,930,000.

John Little is frequently named for the republican candidate for governor of Ohio.

Hezekiah Wells, presiding judge in the United States court of Alabama claims, is dead.

Evans P. Howell, of the Atlantic Constitution, declines the Mauchester, England, consularship.

The Canadian government is taking precautions against a foreign invasion during the rebellion.

An infernal box was left in Juliet's new court house to blow it up. Striking stone masons are suspected.

Ed Nash, aged twenty-two, near Chicago, killed his sister, aged twenty-two, and his mother, aged fifty-five, while his father was away. Officers are in pursuit.

At Berry's station on the Kentucky Central railroad, Dave Bonker fatally shot C. C. Fogle in self defense.

Clas. W. Truett, millionaire, ex-president Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway company, recently acquired income, is dead.

Pou Jones, seventy-five, Miss Rice, forty, and a three-year-old child were burned to death at Asheville, Tenn., in their dwelling Monday night.

No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical ailment combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntington, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of nervousness, the leg bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three-cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been in bed, and I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntington worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. Alf. Luck, Wooster, Ohio, writes: "Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., has been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your MAXALIN, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them."

Mr. Edgar Harter, Smelter, P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied at the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy."

Col. J. H. Pabel, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MAXALIN to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PERUNA entirely cured it."

FOREIGN POT-POURRI.

THE NEW FRENCH CABINET AND AF FAIRS IN THE SOUDAN.

Keats Answers Unsatisfactorily—Glimpse
From the Scenes of War-Bismarck's
Letter—Riel and His Rebel Hordes.
Foreign Notes.

PARIS, April 7.—Le Siecle, the organ of M. Brisson, says that a cabinet has been formed, including M. De Freycinet and Gen.
Compiègne. The new cabinet will meet tomorrow at the elysees to draft a program to submit to parliament. M. M. Brisson and De Freycinet had a conference with M. Ferry in reference to the Tonquin difficulties.

The Soudan.

BUKAM, April 7.—The gauris and the Australian contingent marched this morning in the direction of Khakou, with orders to build a serobe at that point. The British expect no serious opposition on their line of march until Wednesday, when they will probably reach a point where a large body of Arabs are reported entrenched.

Unsatisfactory Answer.

LONDON, April 7.—The morning papers generally declare the Russian answer regarding the Afghan frontier dispute to be evasive and unsatisfactory.

Officers Embark.

BRENDEN, April 7.—Sixty-five British officers have embarked here for India, having received orders to rejoin their regiments in that country.

El Mahdi's Trouble.

CAIRO, April 7.—El Mahdi has summoned
the Emir of Herber to go with his army to Khartoum to assist in quelling revolts.

Reinforcements.

ADEN, April 7.—The governor of Yemen has asked the Turkish government to send 3,000 reinforcements to suppress the uprising
in favor of El Mahdi and to prevent friendly chests from joining the insurgents.

The Afghan Question.

LONDON, April 7.—Orders have been issued and received in India to continue the preparation for war despite the pacific assurance of Russia. This action has created a good impression here. The press generally declares that the Russian answer to Earl Granville,
note is not satisfactory.

Letter from Bismarck.

BERLIN, April 7.—The North German Gazette publishes a letter from Prince Bismarck, expressing thanks for the demonstrations of esteem on the occasion of his seventieth birthday, in which he says: "I ask all who kindly thought of me first to accept my cordial thanks, and believe that the recent proofs of your love can never be effaced from my memory."

Riel's Rebellion.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 7.—Late advices
indicate that Haulobelt is seriously threatened by the rebels.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 7.—Capt. Kerwin, well known in New York city newspaper circles and as a political stump speaker, also a prominent supporter of the Irish cause, has proffered his services to the government in connection with the northwest rebellion. He will leave at once for Winnipeg to see the governor, and has been assigned for duty on the staff of Gen. Middleton.

Capt. Howgate, U. S. A., is here. He will leave at once for Winnipeg to see the Canadian troops in the case of the Gatling guns recently purchased and which are now en route to Winnipeg via Chicago. The guns weigh 1,500 pounds each with their carriages.
The ammunition used is the 45-calibre United States government cartridge. Col. Williams
M. F., in command of the provisional battalion at Kingston, has received instructions to push forward immediately to the front.

He will leave this morning for Ken-new, and will go thence by the Canadian Pacific railroad to the north shore of Lake Superior. Notwithstanding the pressure brought to bear on the government to reach the remainder of the troops via Chicago,
they adhere to the original plan to send all troops by the Canadian Pacific road.

A Wet Holiday.

LONDON, April 7.—The programme of the Easter volunteer review at Brighton and to be considerably curtailed owing to a heavy rain which set in.

Fast-Seeding Brass Pounders.

New York, April 7.—The fast-seeding tournament (or prize offered by L. V. Tilson & Co., and under the management of Mr. Fred Catlin, chief operator of the Western Union telegraph company, New York city, occurred at the office of the United Press, 187 Broadway. There were twelve participants, the contest being on sending five hundred words. The decision of the judges, who were J. W. McFarren, manager of the Baltimore and Ohio New York office, D. B. Mitchell, chief operator of the Western Union telegraph, and Walter P. Phillips, general manager of the United Press, was as follows: First prize, $25, J. W. Robinson; time, ten minutes thirty-two seconds, for great speed combined with praiseworthy cleanliness, considering the time made; second prize, $15, Wm. M. Gibson; time, ten minutes fifty-seven seconds, universal speed and pronounced excellence; third prize, $10, remarkable speed, slightly marred by faults in the formation of certain characters, Frank J.
Kibbi; time, ten minutes thirty-eight seconds. The United Press added two prizes of $10 and $5, which were awarded respectively to Wm. J. Curtis; time, twelve minutes twenty seconds, for absolute correctness,
speed and excellent beauty of style, and F.
J. Griffith; time, thirteen minutes fifteen seconds for remarkable speed and excellent manipulation with the left hand.

Fatal Fight Between Sister and Brother.
St. Louis, April 7.—In a camp near Mexico, Adams county, there occurred a deyer-ate combat between a woman and a man, which in all probability, will prove fatal to both. Two brothers named Thorp, with their families, on their way from Illinois to Kansas, camped near Mexico, and the two men went into town and got drunk. One of the brothers, William, returned to camp and his brother's wife reproached him for getting drunk. He resented the reproaches, abused the woman and tried to brain her with a club. She defended herself with a knife, in flicting five wounds, which will, the physicians say, prove fatal. The woman was struck on the head several times and her skull fractured.
